THOMAS A. DEVILBISS HIGH SCHOOL
TOLEDO, OHIO

VOLUME EIGHTEEN

You Will Remember DeVilbiss . . .

Memories will always live and in the years to come they will serve as one of the connecting links with your youth. You will remember the day you enrolled in DeVilbiss High School as excited, bewildered Freshmen awed by the vastness and complexity of your new school experience. How very fortunate you were that in finding and taking your place you were aided by a friendly co-operative staff and student body.

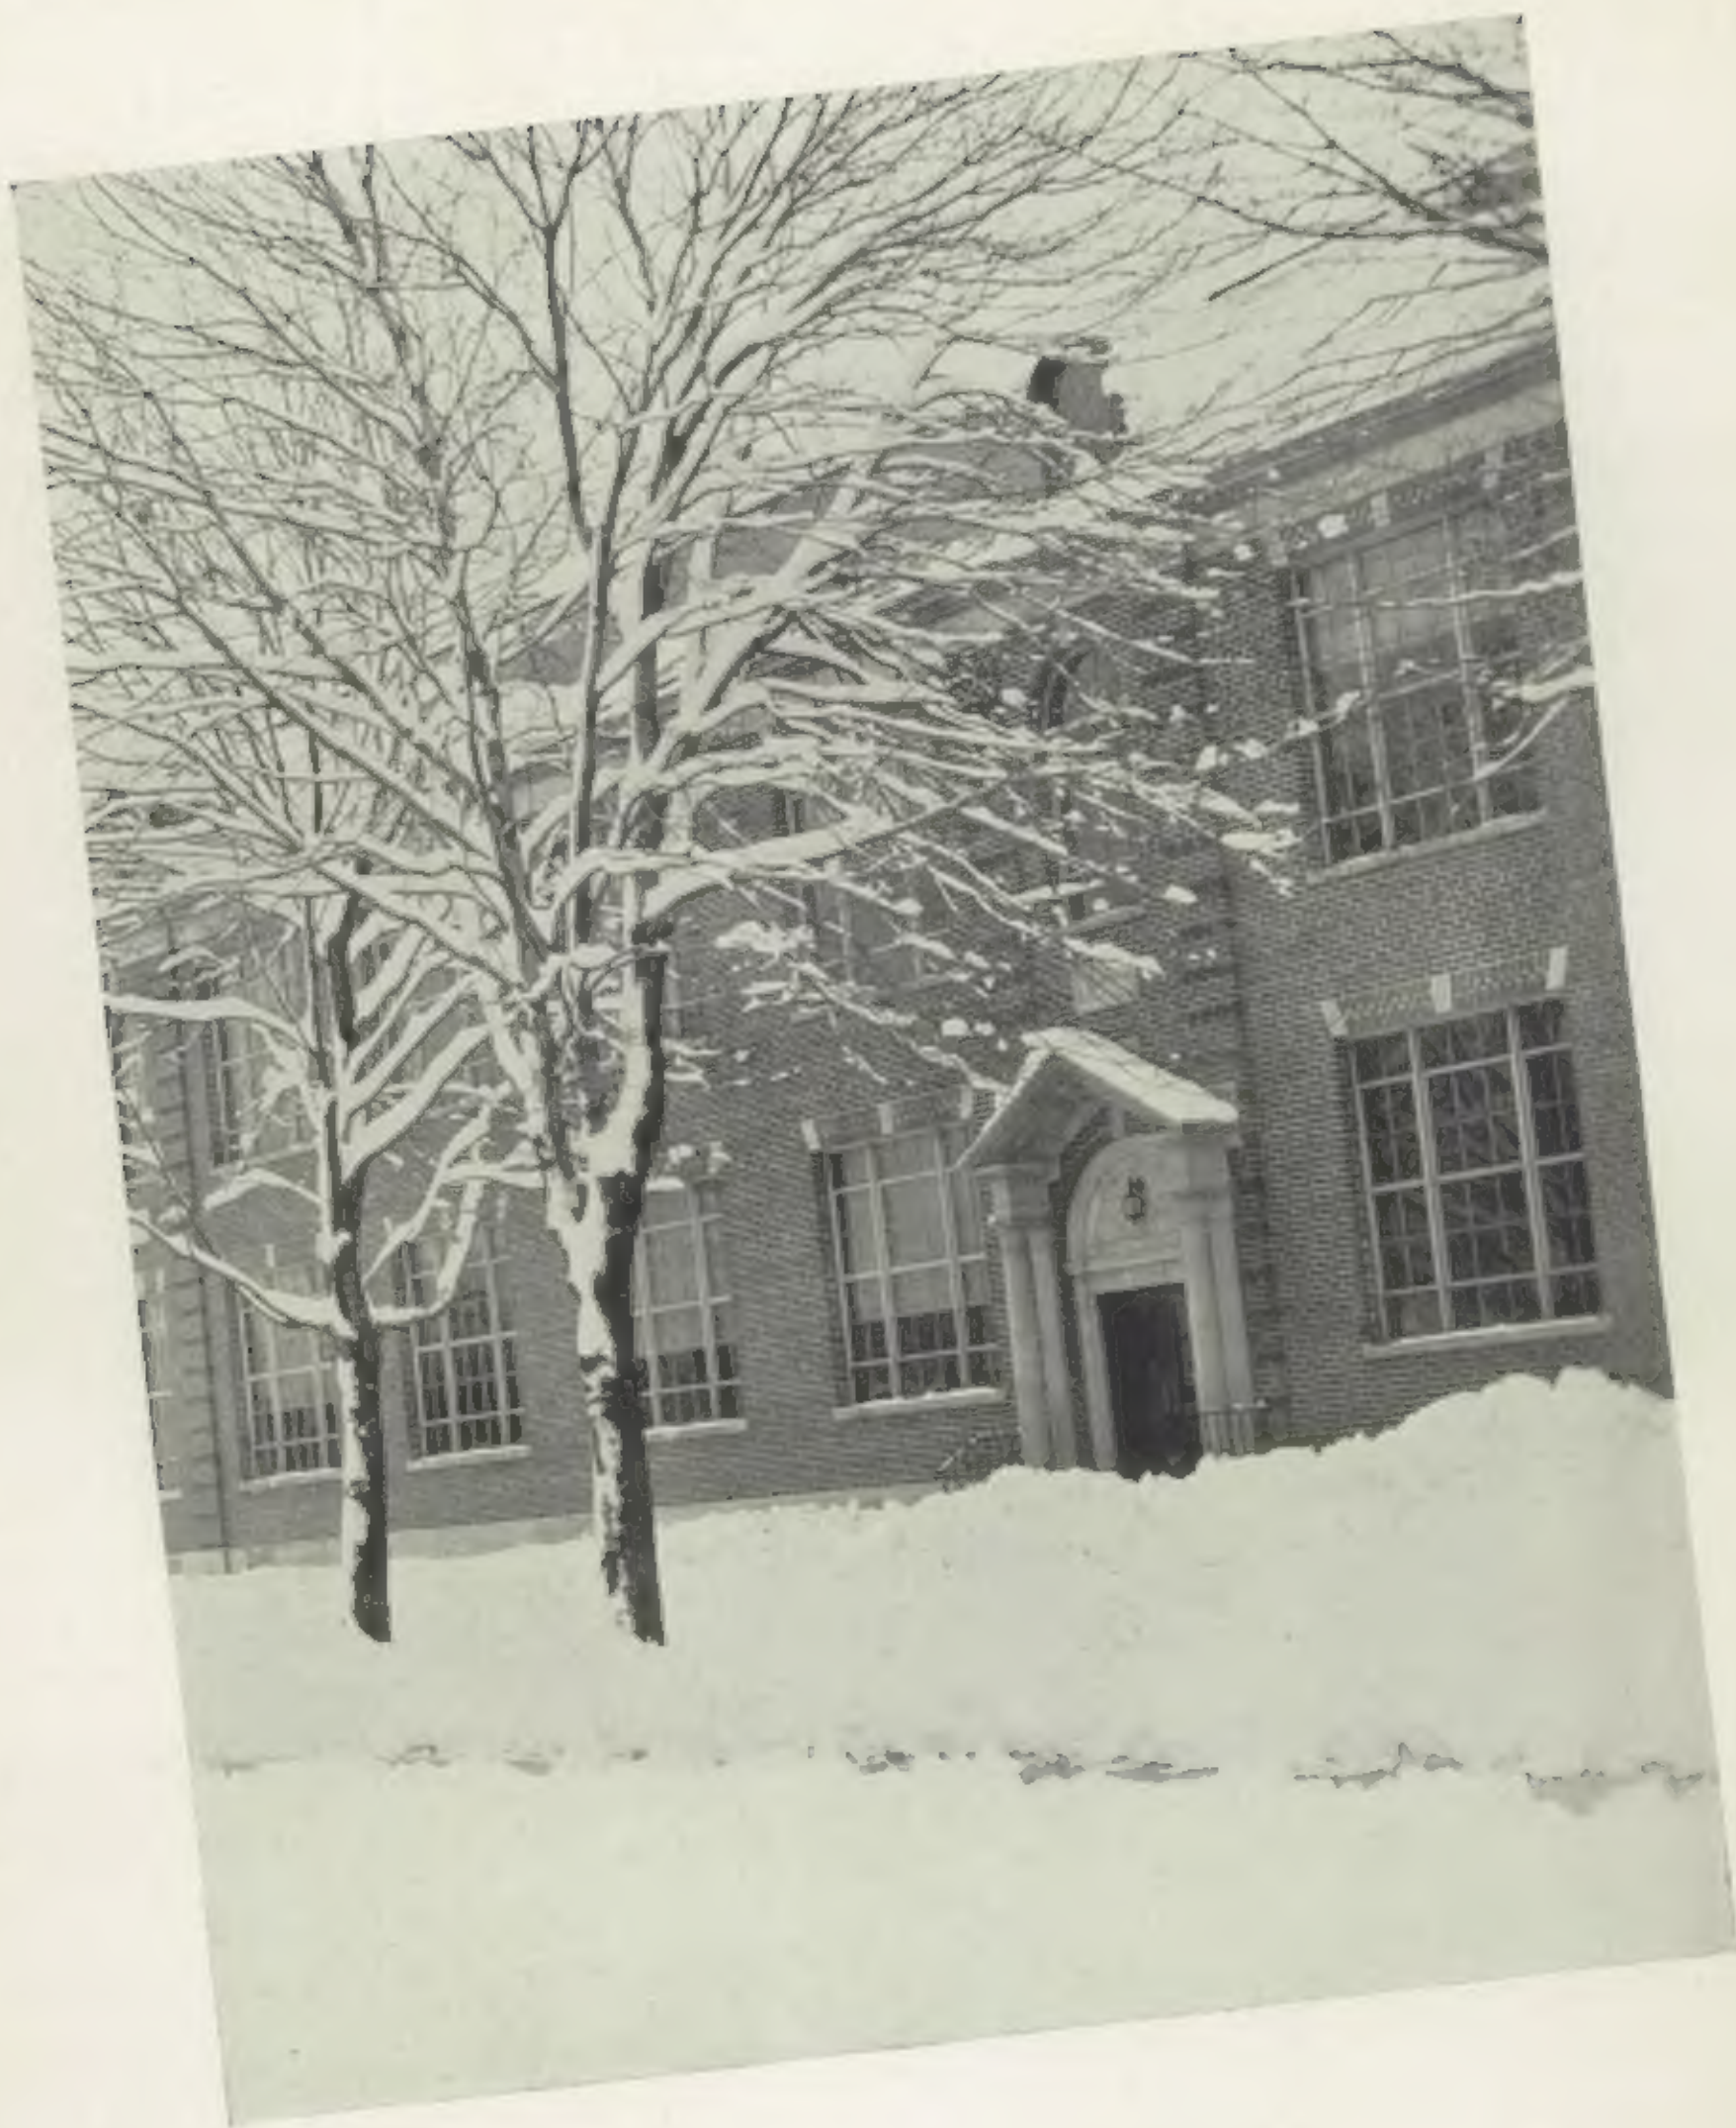

You who were yesterday's Freshmen have opened the door of DeVilbiss, you have passed through the corridors of your high school life, and now you stand before the steps of living in the second half of the twentieth century.

As the younger generation you will be confronted with many problems which you will be called upon to work on. It is then that you can turn back to your days of preparation—the yesterdays when each assignment, each friendship, and each service was a constructive step in your daily living.

It is hoped that today and tomorrow, you will find in this book of remembrance all the many pleasant memories of your life at DeVilbiss.

And it is toward this end that your yearbook staff presents this edition of the Pot o' Gold.

As we see DeVilbiss with its grounds covered by snow and the bare branches of the trees making patterns against the cold winter sky, we again experience that feeling of serene quietude which follows a snowfall. The quiet simplicity of this scene fills us with an inner calmness and peace to be taken with us into our after-school memories.

In later years as we pause to reflect upon our days at DeVilbiss they will perhaps seem to us to be a quiet corner in our life . . . the scene of many pleasant experiences. We shall then remember DeVilbiss as we see it here, with the leaves and branches of the trees blown by a gentle autumn breeze.

Let's Reminisce . . .

Do You Remember . . .

The helpfulness and interest of the Faculty

Remember When . . .

As Freshmen we began our high school days

As Sophomores we became a part of DeVilbiss

As Juniors we experienced the fun of being upperclassmen

As Seniors we were active in all phases of school life

Do You Recall The Good Times When . . .

We served on the Student Council

We published the "Pot o' Gold" and the "Prism"

We produced the DeVilties

We joined all those Organizations.

Remember How . . .

Athletics brought us thrills and fame.

MR. MERRITT C. NAUTS

As we look back over our high school days of this year and every year, we shall always remember our days in the classrooms of DeVilbiss—our contacts with the fine members of the faculty and staff. We shall remember the sincere and enthusiastic leadership of our principal for the DeVilbiss of today has achieved its enviable reputation largely through his personal efforts and educational foresight. Conscientiously aware of the worth of the educational experience, Mr. Nauts always urges the students to take advantage of the many educational opportunities offered to them.

Through his devoted interest in the welfare of DeVilbiss, Mr. Nauts has enriched and broadened the curriculum; he has seen the value of utilizing the community resources; he has secured for the students opportunities for work and advancement. Standing behind the classroom, the club, the cheering section—all activities and every phase of a living school spirit, is Merritt C. Nauts, the loyal friend of DeVilbiss and its people.

MR. RUSSELL BROWN

The boys of DeVilbiss will never forget the warm friendship, his personal interest in everything they do, his cheerfulness and his help in the classroom. They know his varied interests with the students as well as his interest in the community and the state. They are proud to have him as a member of the DeVilbiss Chapter of the Future Teachers of America.

MISS MILDRED PASCH

As is Dean George A. Smith, Miss Pasch knows the student's view of the problems that may be preventing the receiving of the maximum from their high school education. She works in many areas trying to bring cooperation between the student and the parent, the student and the teacher, or the student and the community. Miss Pasch believes that extra-curricular activities are important in the development of social competence and responsibility. As an adviser to the DeVilbiss chapter of the Future Teachers of America.

We Begin Our High School Days

Let's go for a walk down memory lane and recall the first experiences of our high school life. September 7, 1949 was that very first day. How well every one can remember feeling like the little fish in the big, big ocean. How small we felt, yet so very proud to at last be a part of DeVilbiss High School. The thrill that we experienced as we went into the halls, the auditorium, the class room and the stadium for our first DeVilbiss football game is still with us.

In October we were introduced to our first Fifty-Treaters' Party. How much we enjoyed the playing of the games, the dancing, the refreshments. Under the capable supervision of Miss Ursula Schmit, Mrs. Betty Raby, and Mr. Fred Breed monthly Freshman parties were held and each was agreed to be a huge success by everyone attending.

In November after we had received our grade cards we were ready to elect our class officers. Speeches, songs, parades, and banners bearing such slogans as "Save With Sam the Safe Guarding Soul" announced the approach of the Freshman class elections. It was a spirited campaign, with the final victors Bill Huffer, President; Angie Miehl, Vice-President; Pat Tanber, Secretary; and Sam Solomon, Treasurer.

Exams were inevitable and came all too soon. We found, however, that they weren't really so bad as we had thought they would be and that they were worth taking for that two-day vacation at the end of the semester.

On through the year we plodded, slowly absorbing the ways of the school, and it absorbing us. Some of us have started on our way up in our studies, some in clubs, and some in athletics. Our memories are rather few at present, but no one can deny that we have made a good start. We have survived the first year, and have found it not too bad. Now we are looking forward to next year when we will add more pages of memories to the scrap-book we are keeping as we journey down memory lane.

I think it is a very good idea to have a group of young women in the school who can help the boys in their studies and in their conduct. This group of young women is known as the "Young Women's Association" and they are very helpful to the boys in many ways. They are also very helpful to the school in many ways. They are also very helpful to the community in many ways. They are also very helpful to the church in many ways. They are also very helpful to the world in many ways.

3. The X and Y are independent random variables with the following probability distributions:
 X : $P(X=1) = \frac{1}{2}, P(X=2) = \frac{1}{4}, P(X=3) = \frac{1}{4}$
 Y : $P(Y=1) = \frac{1}{3}, P(Y=2) = \frac{1}{3}, P(Y=3) = \frac{1}{3}$
 Find the probability that the sum of X and Y is equal to 4.

Miss Schmit, Mrs. Raby and Mr. Breed advise the Class of '53.

Where would a class be without advisers to counsel it in its activities and parties? Under the supervision of Miss Ursula Schmit, Mrs. Betty Raby and Mr. Fred Breed the Fifty-Treaters have had a most enjoyable year. Miss Schmit, with her experience of three years of class advisorship to the Forty-Niners, has in her understanding and co-operative way contributed much to the success of the Freshman Class. Mrs. Betty Raby, one of the younger members of the Devil-buss staff, has become as popular with the Fifty-Treaters as she has been with her G. A. S. girls; and Mr. Breed has guided this class with the same thoroughness and conscientiousness he has used in his coaching and gym activities. Although class advisers do not receive their share of the laurels, it is only through their congenial help and direction that a class becomes a constructive force in the school!

We Become a Part of DeVilbiss

With half of our high school days in the past, the Fifty Tooters can now pause a moment to recall the wonderful times we have had. The past has proved successful for us students because we have put forth our best effort to make it so.

Looking back we remember our class officers. We remember that as sophomores we participated in many different activities and obtained our leadership in DeVilbiss. We remember when we just had to make that February 15th deadline for the Pot-O'-Gold. We remember the time when the Prism almost didn't come out on Tuesday. We remember how we served so faithfully on the Student Council Commissions hoping that one day we might become a commissioner. We remember the fun we had as Inter-Club Council Representative in planning the various social affairs and that as members of the Sophomore Y-Teens or the Sophomore Hi-Y we were active. We remember that some of our classmates participated in clubs related to their vocations—the Future Teachers and the Future Nurses. We remember that our musically inclined or gifted friends were members of the Band and of the A Capella Choir. We remember the most talented ones always took part in the DeVilbiss. We remember those wonderful advisers, Miss Lubers and Mr. Hardy who with their humor and their good guidance made this year a happy one in our remembrance.

The memories that we enthusiastic Fifty-Tooters are taking with us as we leave school in June are ones of a happy and successful year. The outstanding qualities which have made this class what it is will not be just memories but will be ever present as we continue the rest of our high school days.

Miss Lukens and Mr. Hardy advise the Class of '52.

Under the direction of their advisers, Miss Ruth Lukens and Mr. Dave Hardy, the Sophomore Class has built a good foundation in preparation for the numerous duties which lie ahead of it. Co-operative and capable Miss Lukens and Mr. Hardy have worked hard this year to ensure a good beginning for the class of '52 and they can well be proud of their efforts for under their guidance the class has completed a year they will always remember. However, by no means do the advisers limit their abilities to one field. Miss Lukens, an enthusiastic photography fan, can usually be found clicking a camera, and Mr. Hardy, a member of the Review Staff, can always be seen at the athletic events. With such leaders how could any class reap less than success?

We Experience the Fun of Being Upperclassmen

Led by the most capable of officers and guided by tireless advisers, the Fifty-Oneders added to their bulging memory book the events of their junior year at DeVilbiss. Today they see only the material memories—a dance program, a yearbook, and perhaps a grade card. Tomorrow even the simplest school affair will have a new importance for time alone makes everyday things precious.

And so the Juniors stepped forth to give themselves a name they could be proud of. Numerous committees and organizations welcomed them into their activities; the DeVilbisses claimed its share of talented juniors as did many of the school commissions. The newly established Junior Service Committee has worked for the school and for the Senior Class. The attitude and conscientiousness of those who served will be the basis of their selection for bigger things yet to come.

Cupids, hearts, and arrows got together for the traditional J-Hop, February 10, at the Toledo Woman's Building. This dance, the outstanding social event of the class, did more than its share towards adding many wonderful memories.

Those who were in any way connected with the Junior Play, presented in May, will have much to remember. The play was considered another success.

The reliable hands of Juniors were responsible for the decorations and arrangements for the Senior Banquet as well as for the Junior-Senior Farewell Dance on the night of graduation.

Much success could easily be predicted for these active and ambitious Juniors—they are really "Fifty-Wonders."

Mr. Murphy and Miss Smith advise the Class of '51.

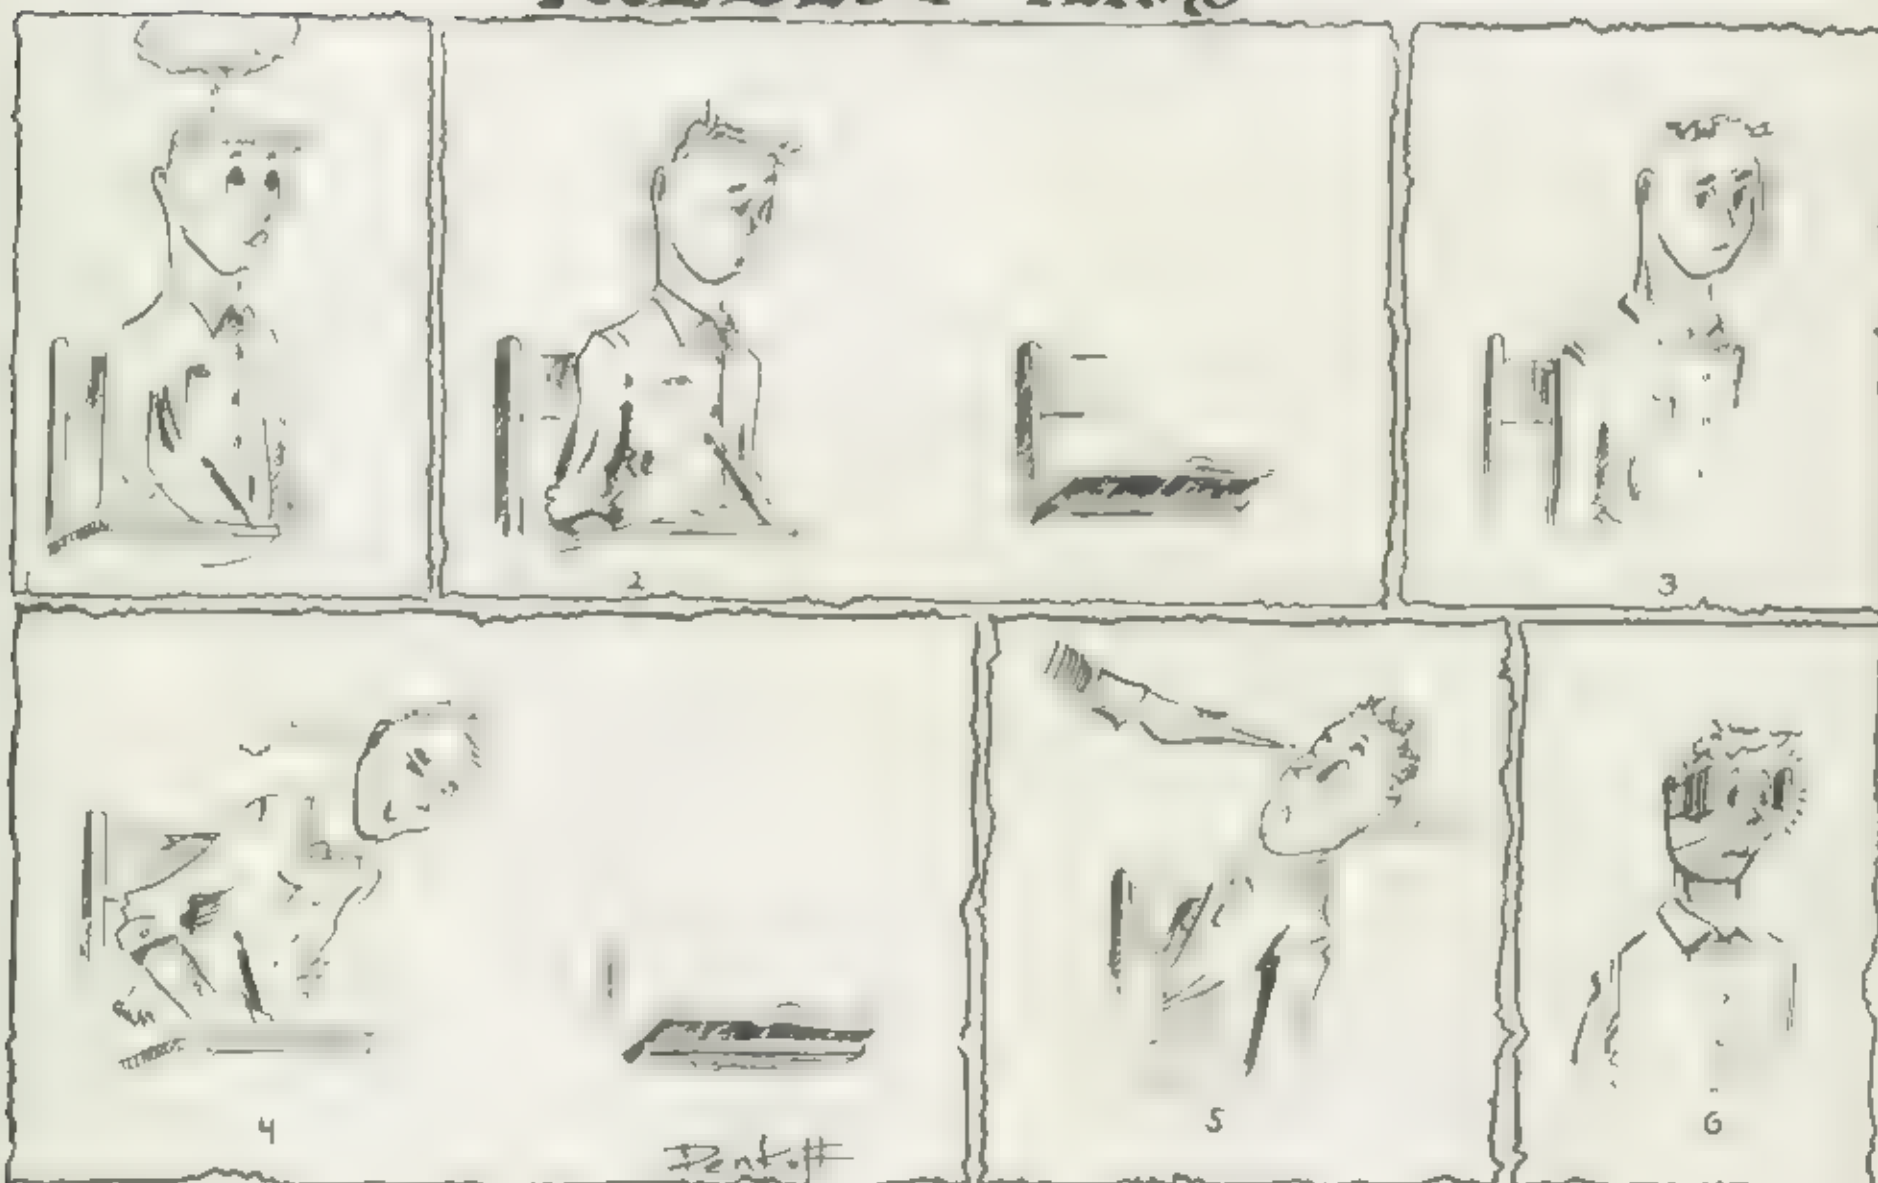

As advisers to the Junior Class, Miss Ruth Smith and Mr. Hilton Murphy always have a ready answer to the confused or worried committee man or class officer.

Miss Smith, long active in school affairs, serves as Faculty Chairman and as an adviser to the Pot O' Gold. Helpful and willing she aids the class officers in selecting their co-chairmen of the various committees and she attends all committee meetings.

Mr. Murphy, the friendly new personality on the DeVilbiss faculty, has already become a loyal supporter of the school. Although particularly concerned with the Junior Finance and Publicity Committees he is an ardent follower of every class activity.

The Class of '51 has experienced a highly successful year under the friendly guidance and supervision of Miss Smith and Mr. Murphy.

We Are Active in All Phases of School Life

It would be difficult to remember these things were a the wonderful events of this past year. There were the Senior Prom with its decorations and lights and the hard to put down on paper. But principally by looking back on the high lights we can help you to see the meaning of each occasion.

The year began with the variety class and dance which was made outstanding by the class of '50. This was not our only success however for we remember the Nifty Fifties turned Senior Class and presented a treat with a pleasant surprise. The "Senior King" listed on the calendar was the winner of the "Winter" dance. Fortunately planned to take our break in the exam. Following this was an event which should have been about forty days ago. It was the "Fathers' and Daughters' Banquet. The girls, not wanting to be treated as their fathers to an evening of entertainment. The "Sons and Daughters' Date" was given for the first time this year and was such a success with people well attended. In the spring the girls honored their mothers with a tea. This is always a pleasant affair because there is so much entertainment involved. The tea was nicely decorated with the "Sons and Daughters' Date" which shows the girls' efforts in making a success of the seniors.

Another tradition of Dev class was presented in a novel way this year. The Senior Banquet was separated from the Junior Senior Farewell dance which, up to this time, had taken place on the same night. This year, however, the juniors gave us their warm send-off the evening of graduation. It was a perfect day for everyone. In the evening we enjoyed our time with Dev class as we enjoyed up the night with the steady music of "Pomp and Circumstance" to receive diplomas. This was a regretful moment for most of us as we realized we were leaving high school days behind, but in the evening all sadness disappeared as the girls were with us on the same floor. The lovely spring dawns and the white stars of the night made a beautiful picture with a soft light.

It took us three years to build the foundation for our senior year, but we will have the rest of our lives to remember it. And we did make this a year worth remembering.

Mr. Brown and Miss Bloom advise the Class of '50.

QUIZ for SENIORS

(Q) What two people occupy a special place in the memory of all seniors?

(A) Miss Rose Bloom and Mr. Russell Brown

(Q) Why do they hold this place of honor?

(A) Because they've helped us wade through two years of heavy tides. It was their influence that steered us through the narrow channels and led us to the shores of success. Mr. Brown, aided by Mrs. Sutter, started us out on our memorable journey four years ago and they did a fine job. When Mrs. Sutter retired, Miss Bloom replaced her as co-adviser and the patience and capability of the new team guided us triumphantly through the last two years.

Now add up your score. Two questions correct makes you a "solid senior", one makes you an "average adolescent", and if you missed them both you've missed the experience of knowing two wonderful people.

"Memories, memories, dreams of days gone by O'er the book of memory we're dreaming with a sigh"——

As the years go by, the days that are so dear to us, they pass
Like the leaves of a book, and we turn the pages with a sigh.

As the years go by, the days that are so dear to us, they pass
Like the leaves of a book, and we turn the pages with a sigh.
But the days we love so best, they live in our hearts,
And the years that pass, they leave no mark.

——"They're years left behind, but still they'll be ours
In our beautiful memories."

DEVILBISS CHAPTER PROMINENT IN JUNIOR RED CROSS

DeVilbiss is very proud to see that it is as prominent in the National Junior Red Cross as the American Junior Red Cross—Donald Pair.

This honor was bestowed on DeVilbiss for his leadership in Junior Red Cross work. He was our DeVilbiss representative to the High School Council in 1949 and later was elected president. Last summer he attended a meeting of the council in Washington where he was chosen to represent the Eastern Area.

Donald Pair, who is now in the Navy, is the chairman of the Eastern Area. One of the greatest honors bestowed upon him was that he was elected one of the twenty-five men and women in the United States to represent the United States in Europe this summer. He will sail in July and will stay until the latter part of September.

Both DeVilbiss and Pair are proud of the Junior Red Cross and are proud of Don and his achievements.

Miss Daisy Van Noorden—Chairman of the DeVilbiss Red Cross chapter. Miss Van Noorden did much for the school and through her efforts brought an end to the school's financial difficulties and our linger thoughts of a school rendered.

Miss Aurelia Quinn—Treasurer of the DeVilbiss Red Cross chapter. Miss Quinn has both carried on the school's financial affairs and has been a great help to the school in many ways.

STUDENT GOVERNMENT

Under the leadership and knowledge of Mr. Robert Rettig and Ronald Harris the Student Council of DeVilbiss has had the opportunity to reach every student of DeVilbiss High School.

Mr. Rettig, a constant adviser and guide to the Council, is a friend to all. The many fine qualities of his character have already earned him high respect throughout the school. Mr. Rettig believes that school is where future citizens are made and that it is the number one job of the school to make good citizens. Because of the liberal views of Mr. Rettig, the Council has been able to feel its responsibility in setting forth the policies of student government. Working with the Commissioners he has helped them to maintain high standards of efficiency.

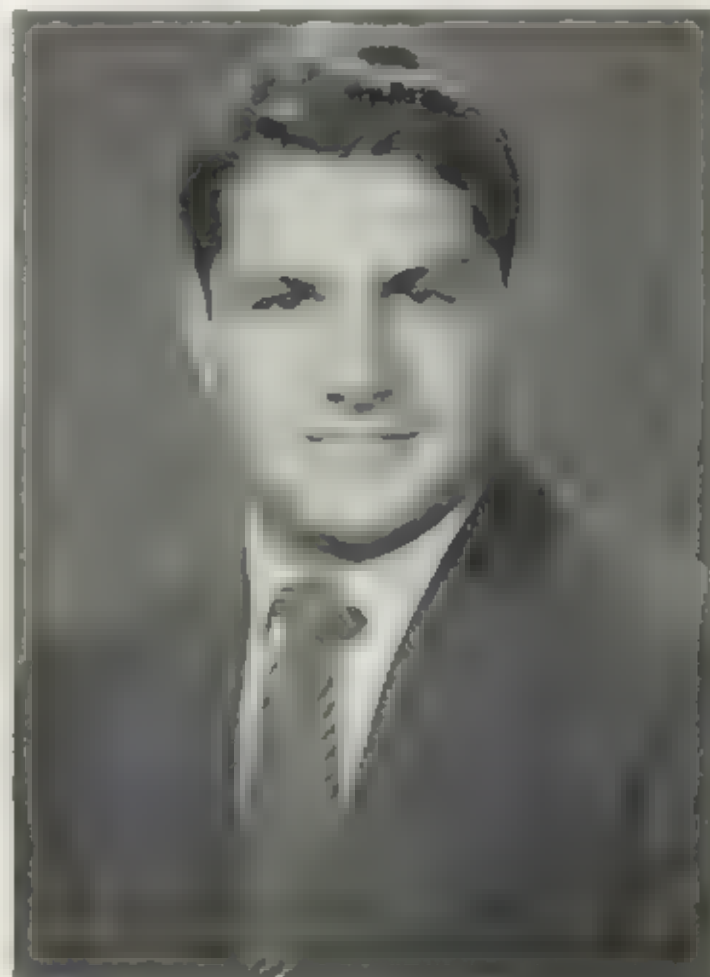

Our President, Ronald Harris, directs the Student Council in its varied activities and presides over the many Commissioners' meetings throughout the year. It is his capable leadership that has been responsible for bringing the representatives together into a more compact group. Working with the aid of the Commissioners he has enabled the home rooms to take a more active part in the activities of the Council. Each home room representative after every Council Meeting holds a cabinet meeting in his home room to bring the work of the Council directly to the attention of the students.

A very important part of the Student Council is the various commissions. Handling the biggest job of all is the Welfare Commission which directs all class elections and the huge magazine drive held each year. The Assemblies Commission too has a responsible position in arranging the many entertaining and educational auditorium periods. The Student Court has shown an untiring effort in judging the cases of the students brought before it. Clubs, an important part of the extra-curricular activities of DeVilbiss students, are under the direction of the Organizations Commission. Remaining are the School Service Commission, the Social Commission, the Publications Commission of both the Pot O' Gold and the Prism, the Publicity Commission, the Awards Commission, the Finance Commission, the Community Service Commission and the Athletic Commission—all commissions of responsibility which serve the school.

Always ready to improve the system of school government, the Student Council of DeVilbiss takes an active part in the activities of the District Student Council. This year the Student Council has started a new project—giving a party for the entire student body. It is hoped that if a success, this project will become an annual affair at DeVilbiss High School.

Yes, the Student Council by working with the faculty and students of DeVilbiss has had an active year, and it is hoped that in the years ahead DeVilbiss will continue to improve and grow in good student government.

THE POT O' GOLD HOLDS YOUR HIGH

As you peruse your copy of the 1950 Pot O' Gold such questions might enter your mind as, "Who puts out the Pot O' Gold?", "How was it produced?", or even "WHY did they publish this book?" I don't really think that many people wonder such things, but if you do—read on! If you don't—at least look at the pictures on this and the next page

As for the first question, "Who—?", I can simply say, "We do, that's who." ("We" meaning the Pot O' Gold staff). Those now looking at the pictures see our happy, smiling faces; those who can read may now glance at the pictures and even match faces with names and positions. (Incidentally, even those not smiling are happy; we're always happy) So now you know "Who—?"

I'm not too sure that I remember, in detail, just how we put out the book. I do recollect, however, hours spent sorting and mounting photographs, alphabetizing endless lists of names, and making deadline stands on copy and cuts—doing much of this when most students are home eating dinner. In connection with method other than sheer grind some mention should probably be made of the Columbia Scholastic Press Association Convention. Every year, come March, the Pot O' Gold and that other DeVilbiss publication send delegates to New York for this convention. This year the annual staffers represented were Nancy Richardson, Jean Barnby, Alice Heyman, Sandra Getz, Beverly Sandusky, Carolyn Wilcoxin, Ann Gordon, Ruth Ramsey, Jeanette Smith, Barbara Baker, Anita Etters, Sally Lindsey, Millicent Dederman, Sue Stapleton, Don Barnby, Carl Satre, Charles Mater, Clark Holt, Ron Penkoff, Norman Roulet and chaperones Miss Ruth Smith and Mr. and Mrs. Stalker. It is sometimes said that these conventions are regarded by those attending them merely as opportunities for a good time in the big city. However, this is just malicious gossip (I think), and everyone tries to attend as many lectures as he can (without precluding shopping shows or sight-seeing). However, our staffers don't have to go to New York to have fun for room 164 is one place where a person who gets his kicks from back-breaking labor can have one whale of a good time. Perhaps the best reply to "How—?" is, "by a lot of hard work."

If you now question the value of a yearbook and tend to regard it just as something that everyone buys at two-bits a throw, wait until in future years you figuratively turn back the clock by turning back to your copy of the Pot O' Gold—then, we hope, you will know the true value of an annual. The answer to question number three, "Why—?", is not, "from force of habit" but, as our theme proclaims, "to help you remember DeVilbiss."

PRISM RECORDS ACTIVITIES FOR SAFEKEEPING

You think we're going to say that room 216 is constantly in a state of perpetual commotion. You think we're going to tell you that everyone on the Prism staff goes slightly mad every other Tuesday when the paper rolls off the presses. Well, you're wrong.

Marilyn Wilson, our Editor, comes in on the day that the copy is to go to the printer and finds that Bruce Steinhauer, an Associate Editor, has left the headline charts at home. But does Marilyn beat her head against the wall? Of course not. She uses Bruce's head. Pat Calef, the Managing Editor, sits calmly by drinking her sandwich and eating her milk as she waves a threatening horsewhip over the heads of Club Editor Barbara Drake, Feature Editors Larry Bershon and Chuck Pearson and Society Editor JoAnne Seitz. They don't seem to notice this. They're too engrossed in cutting paper dolls out of old Prisms.

Advertising Manager Don Gerlach thrusts himself through the door dragging Assistants Roi Davis and Nancy Campbell after him. "Make room for more ads!" shouts Don with that evil grin. Associate Editor Darlene Lange says nothing but quietly jumps through the window. Over in the corner Sports Editors Ron Harris and Joe Sites with Assistants Mark Greenberg and Jerry Iaqui are strangling Photographer LaVerne Alexander. It seems he went to a basketball game and forgot his camera. P.A. Announcers Betty Jean Thronton and Dave Rubin come onto the scene asking News Editors George Weingardt and Ron Kaminsky what news is going to be in the next issue. In reply to this dumb question they brilliantly answer, "Duh."

Thus the fatal Tuesday arrives. Publicists Ann Smyser and Pat McGuire, having finished the posters, crawl back to room 250 on their hands. About this time Circulation Manager Molly Beck gathers up her bundle of papers with the old familiar cry, "Papers, papers, get your Prism, papers."

The Prism's formula must be a good one, however, because it was given first place ranking at the Columbia Scholastic Press Association Convention in New York. The Prism also copped a big, shiny trophy at the Bowling Green Convention for being the best printed paper in Northwestern Ohio. For these honors we feel that we owe much to our faithful advisers, Miss Rose Bloom and Miss Elaine Hirth.

RE-ECHOING MEMORIES

SENIOR HI-Y

The Senior Hi-Y club over the summer has been busy. They have been to the Max Pinner Cup of Excellence in the Town and Country grounds and back to the club. They have completed another eventful year.

The main purpose of the club is to maintain throughout the school and community a high standard of Christian character. The meetings are held on Thursday evenings at the Y.M.C.A. with the aid of our competent advisers, Don Sharp and "Doc" Miller.

The main interest of the Hi-Y is sports. We participated actively in various athletic tournaments against the clubs from other schools. We advanced to the semifinals in the basketball tournament and made a complete sweep of the swimming tourney. The athletic teams were sparked by outstanding notables—Don Blair, George Photos, Bert Warrick, Bill Whipple, Don Pair, John Syx and John Hanson. But the members are known around town not only for their athletic prowess, but also for their participation in class affairs and in extra-curricular activities.

Our meetings have not become dull for much entertainment was provided by Ted Grover, Dick Kelly, Karl Klipfel and Roi Davis. The main interruptions at the meetings were the outbursts of Jim Holliger and John Hunt calling for more sports events. The club also held a good many table tennis tournaments but we were not able to find a winner who was the winner.

We are very proud of the club and the service it has rendered the past four years to the school and to the community.

VISIONS OF DAYS GONE BY CHRISTIAN YOUTH

As one of the fairly new clubs of the city, the Christian Youth Club is making rapid progress and now has a number of members. Since the organization of this club, Mrs. Virginia Francis and Mrs. Hirth have been its advisers. We have no parent advisers. The club members are happy to be present at the meetings.

Other officers are: vice president, Ruth Steman and Barbara Kuehn; secretary, Shirley Stedick. The book chosen for the study is "The Bible." Other club members are: Ruth Steman, Barbara Kuehn, Leah Steman, Shirley Stedick, and Ed Miller.

MEMORIES OF SERVICE

SENIOR SERVICE SCOUTS

The Senior Service Troop B6 is now completing its second year of organization. We have two meetings each month. One is held at school and the other in the evening at the home of a member. It is at these meetings that we carry out our service work. This year as part of our projects we made clown bean bag chairs for the hospitalized children of Toledo at Christmas. We responded with three families in Europe, sending two of them boxes of clothing and food. We sent magazines to the Old Peoples' Home and to the Child Study Institute. We gave many hours of volunteer work to sell Christmas Seals for the Tuberculosis Drive. All our work and service that we do seems more like fun because of the enjoyable companionship of our fellow members.

On the social calendar of this year many activities were planned. We went camping at Camp Libbey in the fall and in the spring, a Christmas party, a square dance, and a splash party given by the Planning Board.

Under the supervision of Miss Ruth Smith, our faculty adviser, and Mrs. Hedden, our leader, plus two mothers, Mrs. Brigham and Mrs. Pirner, who so willingly and freely give of their advice and time, we can only expect more fun and greater service in everything that we undertake.

Our capable officers this year have been Marilyn Lankenau, President; Cella Harrison, Vice-President; Edith Ward, Secretary; Marylee Pray, Treasurer; Billie Spurgeon, Inter-Club Council Representative; and Nancy Jean Reighard and Nancy Bolton, our representatives on the Senior Planning Board.

FOND RECOLLECTIONS

SENIOR Y-TEEN

Over the hubbub of voices and the excitement of the year, the Y-Teen Club tried vainly to keep the year from passing. The President, Barbara Baker, after a year of hard work, was restored. Barbara Frautschi, the Treasurer, was also restored. While Marilyn Decker was the Secretary, the minutes of the last meeting were read. The Treasurer, Barbara Frautschi, was seen the corner floating over the year.

There were many things on the agenda of the Senior Y-Teen Club this year. To start the year, a meeting was held at the home of Barbara Frautschi. The girls really enjoyed this as much as the speaker they heard who gave a talk on a number of the more popular careers for girls. Many of the members gained much from this talk. A day of howling was enjoyed by all during the Christmas vacation. A gay Christmas party was held at which we exchanged gifts and played games. A poor family at Christmas time was helped by the canned goods brought in by the members and the main dishes of the dinner were prepared by the treasury. In addition clothes and toys were given to the members and their families.

Two money-making projects of the year were the paper sale and the rummage sale. This not only added considerably to our treasury but also gave the girls more a chance to work and to be together.

The Mothers' Tea, an annual event of the Y-Teens was equally enjoyed by both the girls and their mothers.

Heads of various committees were: Shirley Emery, Y-Teen-Hi-Y Council Representative; Dixie Sawicki, Program; Marilyn Swyers, Publicity; Shirley Emery, Service; Sue Stapleton, Inter-Club Council Representative; Sandra Minder, Ways and Means.

The members of the Senior Y-Teen Club agree that most of their success is due to the thoughtful and careful advice of our advisers, Mrs. Samuel Renshaw and Miss Fern Dickey.

As we look back on our club's four years of organization, there are memories of good times and friendships which will never be forgotten. These are the things that are constant reminders of our memorable high school years.

MEMORIES OF MEETINGS

JUNIOR Y-TEEN

This year the Junior Y-Teen had many enjoyable times together. Under the leadership of Florence Herman, our President, we have lived up to the purpose of growing as a person; growing in friendship with the peoples of all races, religions, and nationalities, and growing in the knowledge and love of God. Kay Kimple, our Secretary, arranged various interesting programs throughout the year. Our two Secretaries, Carolyn Darah and Barbara McLain, took charge of keeping the minutes and taking the roll. Carol Huffer as Treasurer handled the money, and Ronnie Engelke opened each meeting with a prayer.

We started the year successfully with a roast at JoAnne LeSueur's house. At the following meeting we entertained our mothers and our new members with a play. A Halloween party in the home of Judy Stead where we initiated our new members was the next event. We have taken a tour through the Babcock Dairy. A social event was a Christmas party in the home of Florence Herman. Our greatest service project was the sending of boxes of soap, clothing, and supplies to Japan. We had a bake sale to raise money for our treasury. This turned out to be a very profitable project.

Part of our fun was having meetings with the Hi-Y. In January we met with them to have a discussion on the problems of youth. Refreshments and a social hour including dancing, ping-pong and Canasta followed.

... and inspirations came from our advisers at the Y W C A—Miss Davis and Miss Acker. They were guests at many of our meetings, and they were always willing to offer the facilities of the Y W C A to us for special meetings.

We know that the year would not have been so successful without the able assistance of our advisers, Miss Schueren and Mrs. Slater. To them we give our heartiest thanks.

Every year since the club has been in existence, it has become more active. Each year the club becomes more experienced and the feeling of unity among the members is stronger. We feel that this year has been very successful, and we are looking forward to next year with the hope that we may continue in our upward progress.

FRESHMEN Y-TEEN

If laughter and merriment were heard on March 1st, it was at the Freshmen Y-Teen splash party.

The splash party were Pat Downer, Renee Beverly Walters and Carol Whitmill. After the party, the food was like a banquet to our starved members.

After the party, we sang in a chorus of "Down by the Station".

RIDES RELIVED

CHEVAUX

Tally-ho and they're off, off the horses, that is. Even the most experienced rider sometimes takes a spill. However when this happens, there is always someone to pick him up and give him a word of encouragement.

Every Saturday afternoon Chuck Howard, our trainer, leads us on our weekly jaunt over hill and dale. We start out by trotting and then gradually work up to galloping. After the horses have had a run, some of the more experienced riders do some jumping. In jumping a person not only needs skill in riding a horse but also grace, fullness, poise, and many hours of practice. Chuck chooses our trails wisely because he wants us to have as much experience as possible. Sometimes he will take us through very dense woods to see if we can handle our horses properly. After our long ride, we usually practice at the hunt course near the stables for a while. This consists of many jumps and different obstacles. To master all of these, one must be very experienced. When we finally reach the stables, everyone is bruised, bow-legged, and bragging of his accomplishments.

This year the club had very capable officers. President

Carol Christen led the club throughout the year. Alice Adrian, as Vice-President and Secretary, helped her. Carol Hansen was Treasurer while Shyrle Swanson acted as Inter-Club Council Representative of the group. Mr. and Mrs. Pierre Pasquier were the advisers of the club.

Although this is a riding club, the club does not limit itself to just riding. There were several social activities on the schedule also. At Christmas we had a party at Jane Brunthaver's home. We had two hayrides and a square dance during the course of the year. We all enjoyed our social functions very much.

To become a good horseback rider a person must first learn the basics. After a person learns how a horse should be treated, he then begins to better his skills in riding. At first the only thought of a rider is to stay in the saddle. Falling off, though, is not a disgrace. It just makes you a little more determined. The main things a rider works for is to become skillful in balance and co-ordination. These are very important in looking like and being a good rider.

SCHOOLMARMS LOOK BACK

FUTURE TEACHERS OF AMERICA

Peek into room 126 on a Thursday afternoon and you can see the penalty room transformed. Two rows of these four walls house deflected high school heroes. Instead conversations such as these are taking place:

"Do you have the material for the 3-5-8-10?" asks the President and Program Chairman Sally Ames.

And Phyllis Warner answers worriedly, "I don't know. I've asked Joyce Southard and Arlene Hoffman. They're supposed to help me."

"Oh," pipe up Judy Stead and Lois Connett, "we saw them watching DeViltres rehearsal ten minutes ago."

"Can I count on you for a report today?" asks President Barbara Drake of Treasurer Meredyth Manns.

"I suppose so," is the answer, "but it's really no different from last month."

"What did I do with my minutes?" asks Shirley Hart. "I know I had them a minute ago."

"Here they are," smiles cheerful Beverly Sandusky. "I must have dropped them in the waste basket while I was tidying up."

An interruption occurs while Marilyn Olson arrives.

Followed by our Historian and Inter-Club Council Representative, Joyce and Arlene, who wear guilty looks.

A last minute rush on the part of Nancy Cornwall to tell sponsors, Miss Mildred Pasch and Mrs. Walter Manns, that we are ready to begin, and so another meeting of the Future Teachers of America gets underway.

Seriously though, the F.T.A. is an organization designed to interest girls and boys (although this year we lack male support) in the teaching profession. To carry this theme along we invited several speakers to explain their experiences in teaching. As a group project, we undertook to prepare amusing scrapbooks for the Crippled Children's Convalescent Home. At every business meeting one of our members gave reports on the contents of the National Education Association Journal.

But the highlight of the year came when we visited the Edna B. Rowe Day School. Here we got to see children at work and play and the various ways in which to handle them.

All in all, the year 1949-1950 was profitable, every respect to the Future Teachers of America.

PLAYERS RECOUNT MOVES

CHESS CLUB

1950 marked a banner year for the DeVilbiss Chess Club.

Every Friday afternoon the club would meet in room 118 the room of our adviser, Mr. Voss. Walter Milbourne was elected President at the beginning of the year to guide the club's activities. Dick Zimmerman and Jim Caldwell were elected Secretary and Inter-Club Council Representative respectively.

The club began the year by having a tournament to determine the five boys who would form the chess team that would represent DeVilbiss in its matches against the teams of other schools. Although the tournament set up temporary merit ratings of each member, the club continued to have many exciting battles as each member endeavored to raise his position on the Chess Club Ladder. This Ladder is a board listing the ratings of the individual members.

Some of our games were recorded in order that each member might see his mistakes and profit by that experience by never making them again. Since some of the members did not know how to record chess games, one of the projects of the club was to teach them.

Every other week one member would introduce a new chess opening and explain its principles to the other members. This helped give each member a more varied game. Also much enjoyment was experienced in experimenting with a new attack.

Since that more students might be able to understand and enjoy the game of chess, the club took upon itself the task of encouraging other students who knew nothing about chess to join the club and learn the game. These new members were guided by various old members until they had attained the art of playing. However this job was usually shifted over to Mr. Voss who, fortunately for us, accepted it.

In January our meeting on Friday the 13th provided a big surprise for our members. One of our club members, Jim Grubs, had his birthday party at the club meeting and provided us with ice cream and cupcakes. This was a long way in dispelling any superstitions about Friday the 13th being unlucky.

This year greater progress has been made than ever before in the history of the club. The club members have not only learned more about the art of playing but also have learned to know their fellow members and to make many enjoyable companionships.

LINGERING THOUGHTS

THALIAN LITERARY SOCIETY

Under the helpful guidance of Miss Mildred Johnston, our faculty adviser, and Mrs. Olen, our parent adviser, the Thalian Literary Society has completed a very successful year filled with fun and numerous activities.

Our club meetings have always proved to be very educational and beneficial and a great enjoyment to everyone.

Our Chaplain, Carol Burkholder, begins each of our meetings with the Lord's Prayer. After Nancy Brechenser, the very capable President, has finally quieted the members, our Secretary, Joan Olen, reads the minutes of the last meeting. Nancy Henry, our hard-working Treasurer, tried desperately to collect the dues our treasury so badly needs. Carolyn Churchill, Vice-President, then takes charge of the meeting to announce the committee for the coming meeting. Sally Hull, our Inter-Club Council Representative, gives a brief summary of what took place at the preceding I.C.C. meeting.

This year the Thalias decided that they would like to look into the world of poetry. As a result at each meeting four of the members planned and gave reports on an author and read excerpts from his poetry.

The activities of the Thalias throughout the year were numerous. At Christmas a party was given at which there was a gift exchange. This year we were very proud to have won the second prize in the Christmas decorations contest sponsored by the Inter-Club Council. The traditional Mother's Day Tea was given in the spring under the chairmanship of Corinne Kriege, our Social Chairman. And finally came the slumber party given by the juniors for the graduating seniors to complete another year of activities.

Thus, another "packed full" year has ended for the Thalias in which each member has taken an active part and has felt the benefits of belonging to this worthwhile school organization.

When two girls get together for an evening it is a lot of fun. But when thirty-six assemble under the same roof it is a circus—a Sub-Deb Circus.

The Ringmaster is Pat Calef who with the aid of Diane Brown, Assistant Ringmaster, presides over all performances. Virginia Dowdney as Circus Secretary directs our activities while Barker Nair, Miller attempts to entice the money out of the members for the show. Phyllis Selter represents the Sub-Deb Circus at Inter-Club Council meetings. Meanwhile, L. F. Tamers Jane Bainbridge and Shirley Emery attempt to maintain order during the performances. Dolores Kosuth adds a solemn note as Chaplain by opening all our meetings with a prayer. Advertising Manager Sally Lindsey has the king task of heading the committee for notifying the members of the events of the big-top.

Much to the delight of the seniors the very first undertaking of the year was the induction of the juniors. After the juniors had been inducted and had received their corsages, they admitted that they had had just as much fun as the seniors.

Our first project was the Christmas party. Phyllis Fausnaugh and Nancy Cox the club decorated the small hall in the direction of Nancy Henry. The girls brought Yuletide cheer to the patients in the hospital by singing Christmas carols.

After that the girls began to look forward to the "Seniors' Tea with Florence Herman and Tamra Johns in charge, and to the annual Senior Banquet planned by Carolyn Darah and Barbara McLain.

We feel that this has been a particularly successful and enjoyable year for us for every girl co-operated and showed an interest in the club and we were fortunate enough to have Miss Marie Lerche and Mrs. Oran D. Calef as our advisers.

MEMBERS RECALL MEETINGS

ZETALETHEAN LITERARY SOCIETY

It's Thursday again! Don't forget! The meeting is the library after school. Ruth has another of her famous programs planned. These words spoken by President Anita Etters are familiar to every Zeta member. The Ruth spoken at the meeting is Ruth E. Johnson, President and Program Chairman.

But she is not. Come with me and see the typical Zeta meeting. As the students enter the room, the door is open and the lights are on.

Look! There is Barbara Thomas, the Zeta Secretary, trying to take notes and keep track of what she will do. She is doing a good job. Harriet Rohling, the Zeta Treasurer, is only smiling a superior smile. Harriet is the Zeta Treasurer. Her main work is to keep the Zeta books.

What is that rare book? It is the Zeta book. It is correctly over and that is the Zeta book. It is our faithful Treasurer, attempting to balance the books—the one impossible task.

But the meeting has been a success. The Zeta reigns. Judy Price, Interim President, suggests that the next meeting be a party. The meeting is a success because the members not only have an enjoyable time but also they know that it is a success. Of course the idea that everyone in the room has to eat has nothing to do with it.

At the present time Nancy Landin, Ann Gordon and Dorothy Combs are doing everything making plans for the Mother's Tea. The event of Zets. They are helped by the executive advisers, Miss Warner and Phyllis Marenburg. The meeting has begun and silence is finally restored.

The new members, Sally Ames, Carolyn Wilcox, Barbara Thomas, Phyllis Marenburg, Charlene Vanden Eynden, Betty Youngs, Irma Walters, Judy Price, and Jane McMahon are the new members. They were initiated into the Zeta in November.

The program is presented and then as Anita adjourns the meeting, the girls walk, not run to the restaurant. In the traditional way she is

IN RETROSPECT

PERICLEAN LITERARY SOCIETY

Just what do Peries do at their meeting?" The puzzle junior who asked this question one day last September was invited to take an imaginary journey to a meeting of the Periclean Literary Society to see just what goes on at one of our get-togethers.

We start out on a Thursday evening because this is the time set aside every other week for our meetings. In these few short hours we try to accomplish all that is to be done.

As we enter the home of one of the members where the meeting is being held, we see our two advisers, Miss Elizabeth Johnson and Mrs. Jeanette Brand. We all know they have helped us very much in our work and we owe our thanks to them for their kind support. There is Dolores Kosuth, our President, trying to call the meeting to order. Of course, she has Diane Brown who is Vice-President for moral support. Over there is our Treasurer, Phyllis Rupp, attempting to collect dues from us. And over in the corner is Nancy Dow madly scribbling notes.

Our Inter-Club Council Representative Phyllis Haller tells us that we must begin thinking about Christmas decorations. Letty Laufer is elected chairman of that committee and Diane Brown, Dolores Kosuth and Phyllis Rupp were employed as her helpers.

Our Alumnae Tea was held at the home of Nancy Dow. We were very glad to have the chance to get together with our old friends.

But there is Phyllis Rupp still moaning because the treasury is low. As a result we had a discussion on money making projects and decided upon a bake sale. Because of its success we climbed back into the "black".

But what do you do at your meetings?" There's that junior again. Well, we do a lot of things. But as you have seen the main program of our meetings go like this. Old and new business is discussed and our literary reports are then given. The girls are assigned to read papers and give reports upon them. We have had many interesting programs and have gained much from group discussion.

TRICKS AND TRUMPS

BRIDGE CLUB

During its first year of existence, the Bridge Club of DeVilbiss, the Bridge Club has been a great help to the younger students the art of bridge. This year the slate of officers includes: President, Dick Shambaugh; Secretary, E. Keller; and Red Cross Representative, Mary Taylor. The two faculty advisers were Miss Eva Samsen, Mrs. [Name].

The members of the club decided that they would use room 109 every second and fourth Wednesday of the month after school to discuss or put to use any cleverness which they had either learned or read about in coming to the meeting. Outside of our regular meetings many members formed their own table of bridge for a little extra enjoyment. By the time June arrives we hope most of the members will be capable of playing the game of bridge.

The first game played by the club this year was the [Name] game. Our next [Name] game was the school's Christmas [Name] game. [Name] game, the members [Name] game, we won the [Name] game.

During the year numerous parties were held so that members of the club would not tire of playing the complicated game of bridge. These parties were usually [Name] games, but a few members always seemed to end playing a hand of cards.

Looking back upon the past year, the officers, advisers and members have only one wish: We hope the members in later years will have as much fun and enjoyment as we have had this past year.

ROW ONE: Norman Roulet, Larry Bershon, Ron Kaminsky, Marilyn Britton, Joyce Southard, Judy Hicks. THE MELODY LINGERS ON SHARPS AND FLATS

Once again Sharps and Flats proved itself to be one of the more active clubs in the school. Growth has come with progress and the roster of the club now reaches the forty-mark. The purpose of our club is to promote interest and further education and ability in the field of music. We have tried to do this this year while keeping a social and an educational balance.

At least one musical activity each month is attended by all members. In accordance with this policy, we have attended the concerts of Roberts Goldsand, noted pianist at the Art Museum auditorium; Wolfgang Stresemann conducting our own Toledo Orchestra in the Peristyle and several others. A musical program highlights each meeting and since eighty per cent of our membership has some musical talent, the programs are presented by the individual members. We enjoyed hearing at our January meeting Miss Athey, director of the Music Appreciation Classes at the Art Museum, speak of American music and composers.

We have combined our interests socially, also. During the Christmas vacation we caroled at the Old Ladies Home, Toledo Hospital and various homes in the De-Vilbiss district. An exclamation point was placed on this night as we enjoyed our annual Christmas party, this year in the home of our parent adviser, Mrs. Holly Sharps and Flats celebrated the arrival of snow with a toboggan party and roast in January. In April, we held our second annual Parents' Tea in the Toledo Art Museum.

Our capable officers this year were: Ronald Kaminsky, President; Tamra Johns, Vice-President; Joyce Southard, Secretary; Judy Hicks, Treasurer, and Marilyn Britton, Inter-Club Council Representative. Our advisers, Miss Elaine Hirth and Mr. Russell Brown, have guided us through our many activities to complete another good year.

MEMBERS MUSE ON GOOD TIMES

SENIOR SORELLES

The Senior Sorelles have completed a year of activities ranging everywhere from charity projects to slumberless slumber parties, from money-making programs to Berle on.

The reasons for the projects, Pat Smith, President, says, "The President have often at our 'business' meetings."

A party at Easter time for the crippled children at the Opportunity Home came under the heading of one of our charity projects. We did a repeat on our slumber parties.

It was impossible for all of us to get less sleep than we did at the previous party.

Miss Ruth Lukens and Mrs. Vorys Smith, the advisor of the club, we owe our sincere thanks. It was through their helpful guidance that the projects and parties during the year were successful.

ENDURING COMPANIONSHIPS

JUNIOR SORELLES

The year ended in the home of Dolores Mechling where we became members of the Junior Sorelles group of 1949-1950. The main event of the evening was electing officers for the year. Officers of the Senior Sorelles were present to enlighten us on the background and procedure. Barbara Toth was chosen to lead the group and to assist her Joanne Wernert as President. To jot down the minutes we elected Sara Strickler as Secretary. And it was Pat Beltz who is forever begging us for money as Treasurer. Nancy Campbell was elected to represent us at the Inter-Club Council meetings; and Letty Laufer, as Chaplain, opens our meetings with the Lord's Prayer. Natalie Hessler, tries her best to keep order during our meetings as Sergeant-at-Arms.

We were fortunate in being able to have as our advisers, Mrs. Margaret King and Mrs. W. H. Nichols, who proved most co-operative and helpful throughout the year.

The program for the year was a Christmas sale which was the first money-making project for the year. This proved most successful under the direction of Donna Nichols and Pat Beltz. We also were proud of ourselves for filling a Red Cross box.

We all enjoyed working on our Christmas decorations in the stairway and were proud of the fact we came in fourth place with our sisters, the Senior Sorelles. Gloria Mersereau and Sue Straight were in charge of the decorations.

A Valentine party for an orphanage was enjoyed by the members as much as it was by the children. Nancy Keller and Dolores Mechling acted as chairmen for this activity.

We climaxed our year by entertaining the Senior Sorelles with a farewell party.

ATHLETICS

VARSITY FOOTBALL

Exhibiting speed and will with the usual running style the Tigers looked very good in their first showing at the Newburgh Road Kinnikinnick. Their opening game, however, proved too much for Coach Hart's players as they lost to a superior River Kinnikinnick team. The defeat did little to lower the Bengal's morale for they snapped back to humble Scott the next week in the first game of the city schedule. Continuing their winning ways, the DeVilbiss team met a strong Central squad and came from behind in the second half completely outscoring the Irish to score their second straight league victory. With this win they also took the city lead.

With two wins to their credit, the DeVilbiss team traveled to Erie, Pennsylvania, but were out of city competition proved too strong as the Tigers were defeated in a hard fought battle.

Coming back to Tiffin to deliver their third of the league, the Bengals showed the finest play of the season, winning for the third straight league win.

The next game on the schedule was the one which the team and the school had been waiting for since the first game of the season, the Waite game. Played on a wet, hard Stadium field, the game proved a real thriller for both. The Tigers came within feet of the Waite goal line but were unable to cross it. The DeVilbiss team did everything that could be done by being deep in its own territory most of the game, completely outscoring the Raiders.

Still leaders in the city, the Bengals traveled to Cleveland to play a fine Shaker Heights team, but once again non-league competition took the measure of the Tigers when they lost a close game to the Raiders. DeVilbiss' next triumph, its first victory over a team of equal competition as they traveled to Lima, came twice in the fourth quarter game.

Russell's end run ends!

DeVilbiss defends its goal against Central

Meeting the football team from Cranford, Arizona, the Tigers completely dominated the play putting up a record score and demonstrating their tremendous potential scoring ability. However, playing their last out-of-town opponent, the Tigers were beaten and were defeated at Newark, the scene of many years of rivalry by Manshan.

The annual Thanksgiving Day game with Linney has particular importance this year for it was to decide the city championship. Played on a field made slippery by snow and sleet, the game proved to be a kicking duel as neither team was able to start an effective offense. In the first quarter Linney scored, however, proved the Tigers leading as they left the first half game and with little to ramp up.

This past season has proved that with hard work by coaches and boys like DeVilbiss can produce a team repeated by all those. With teamwork and cooperation the Tigers have completed one of their most successful seasons in recent years.

DeVilbiss can truly look forward to better things in the season in future years.

Coach Rott accumulated seven years' hard fighting, productive effort this year by winning the city basketball championship. This feat was especially important since it was the first time in DeWitt's history that the championship has rested here. And, for we treat it as the honor once before.

Continuing fine defensive play and solid offense, and using the team's great height to great advantage, Rott and the Tigers early in the season proved themselves worthy of any opposition as they downed a former alumni quintet, a highly regarded White River Valley first league opponent, Libbey, in quick succession.

The Bengals next met their arch-rival, the away stretch of Central, and in a thrilling game were defeated. Not to be discouraged, however, the Tigers picked back with the determination to reach championship with their next two seasons. Included were such opponents as Parawa Hills, with a long string of wins, and Central the only team to defeat the Tigers during their regular campaign.

The Tigers won the title by defeating their strong rivals Woodward and then ended a most successful season by defeating White, the old Tiger jinx. Thus the Tigers made only the first city record, but a so one of the best teams in the state, ranking in the top ten teams in the last Associated Press poll.

The Tigers won their individual laurels as well as team honors. Bert Spicer won the season as the top player with the highest per-game scoring average and was selected for honorable mention in the state as well as being named to the first string all-city team. Bert Spicer was named to the second string all-city team and Jim Woodward was given honorable mention.

TRACK

Losing many seniors by graduation this year's track team nevertheless proved their superiority on the track. Off to a fast start in the season the Tiger thinclads overwhelmed Swanton and Central by favorable scores

Running against a surprisingly strong Waite squad, the Bengals fought for victory down to the last event and finally proved victorious. Defending their city title against a well balanced Scott team, the Tigers' inexperience proved their undoing as they lost their first dual track meet in three years.

Meeting the always powerful Libbey tracksters at Page Stadium the Tigers once again were defeated after a hard, thrilling meet in which the result was not determined until late in the afternoon.

The annual Night Relays with many schools from Ohio and Michigan participating, was the highlight of the '49 track season. DeVilbiss ran a very fast relay team with DeVilbiss running second.

As many have remarked, a very successful track season in 1950, for this year's team is composed primarily of underclassmen. In spite of these losses the Tiger proved true sportsmen and gentlemen both on and off the track.

Although getting off to a shaky start with two early league losses, the Tigers got into their stride and their batting eyes in time. They proved their mettle on the diamond as they later played in the district and the state tourneys, reaching the semi-finals in the state before bowing out.

Central and Macomber were the early season vanquishers of our Tigers, but both losses were revenged in later play, the Tigers beating both teams by sizeable margins. Defeating Woodward in the district tournament gave the Bengals the district title and the right to compete in the state tourney at Columbus.

After a close, hard fought game, the Tigers were defeated in a close, hard fought game by Lakewood. Reaching the semi-final by way of wins over Linden McKinley and Macomber, the Tigers were defeated in a close, hard fought game by Lakewood.

MASS MEETINGS KINDLE THE SPARK NECESSARY FOR VICTORY

As the years roll on you will remember the mass meetings that were a part of the football season. It took cooperation from the entire student body to plan and produce all of these various rallies.

One will stand out in our high school memories—The Libbey-DeVilbiss Turkey Day Mass Meeting. Libbey has always been an arch rival of the Bengals of DeVilbiss and this year was no exception. There was one thought in the minds of all the DeVilbiss Tads and Taddies: "Would DeVilbiss beat Libbey and win the city championship on Thanksgiving Day?" This was the big question and everything was being done to answer that with an emphatic "yes." The Student Council decided that all the mothers of the football team should be honored at the mass meeting and so the members of the Assemblies Commission kept the telephone wires "hot" until all the mothers had been invited and accepted.

Finally the big day arrived and the student body crowded into the auditorium united for that one goal of defeating Libbey! School work had been secondary all week and spirit was abundant. The building fairly shook with cheers when the curtains parted and a spot light shone on the huge banner bearing the words, "Beat Libbey!" in big yellow and blue letters. All the familiar songs and cheers echoed throughout the school that afternoon as the mighty DeVilbiss Tiger and the despised Libbey Cowboy pranced around the stage.

You will remember touchdowns and baskets, to be sure, but games will be forgotten long before DeVilbiss team spirit fades from your mind.

GIRLS' ATHLETICS

The old saying "Variety is the spice of life" can very well be applied to the Girls' Physical Education program here at DeVilbiss. Every quarter of the year offers one of the various major or minor sports in the curriculum. Freshmen, Sophomore and Junior classes enjoy home or hit-pin baseball in the fall, while square, tap and modern dancing fill in the winter months. With the arrival of spring come the more important sports such as basketball, baseball and volleyball.

The girls eagerly look forward to their senior year in gym. These seniors find a great variety of sports available some of which are scheduled away from school in the afternoons and evenings. Included in this program are such sports as fencing, archery and badminton. On Wednesday afternoons twenty teams bowl in the senior league over at the Colony. The girls, whose averages range anywhere from sixty to one hundred fifty, seem to enjoy this sport the most for all the alleys have been filled to capacity each semester. Bumps and jolts are just part of the memories of the Howard Stables in Lambertville, where weekly the girls learned some of the tricks of good riding. Every Thursday evening, second semester, brought out a very enthusiastic group of swimmers to the Y.W.C.A.

Perhaps the most vital part of the Girls Physical Education program in the past and at the present time is the Girls' Athletic Society better known as the G.A.S. This strongly organized group provides the girls with a varied program of sports ranging from ring-hockey in fall to baseball in the spring. The inter-class basketball tournaments stirred up an unusual amount of interest and enthusiasm this year as the Sophomores completely surprised everybody by winning through and defeating the Junior and Senior teams to become the new basketball champions. The fine spirit of sportsmanship shown in this tournament is certainly a credit to the officers and advisers of the G.A.S.

Another important branch of the athletic program is the Leaders Club. The girls who qualify themselves in this club are given the various sports which they are able to perform. These girls are also given the opportunity to help the other girls in the school who may take a long time to learn the various sports. The Leaders Club is open to girls who are able to pass the tests.

All the girls participating in Intramurals receive a certificate of appreciation towards the awarding of the numerals, and the girls who are given the opportunity to help the other girls in the school who may take a long time to learn the various sports. The Leaders Club is open to girls who are able to pass the tests.

The girls are very proud of their adequate sports curriculum where they have made many lasting friendships and where they have come to realize the true meaning of sportsmanship and cooperation with other people.

MR. IRVING PROSS

DeVilbiss Faculty 1931 — 1949

Since DeVilbiss High School opened in 1931, Mr. Pross has been a part of its history. He has taught English and Architectural Drawing. Before he came to DeVilbiss, Mr. Pross taught at McKinley Junior High School.

Mr. Pross, an excellent cabinet maker himself, made many of the articles of furniture now found around the school, he also provided the opportunity for his students to make furniture for the school as well as furniture to sell to outsiders.

Students who have participated in any of the school athletics have seen a great deal of Mr. Pross both in school and out on the field, for he has served for several years on the Athletics' Commission. As an adviser for the Engineering Club, he planned and arranged interesting field trips for that group.

May we wish Mr. Pross an abundant and a happy life on his farm in Wisconsin.

MISS DAISY VANNOORDEN

DeVilbiss Faculty 1931 — 1949

Miss VanNoorden has been a Toledoan all her life. In 1931, she has been teaching our young people to be good business men and women.

In addition to serving us as a teacher, Miss VanNoorden has been the adviser to the DeVilbiss chapter of the American Junior Red Cross. Not only has she made a great success of this work in DeVilbiss, but she has also given DeVilbiss national recognition for its fine efforts in filling gift boxes, making gifts for hospitals, giving money to the National United Service Fund, and so on. She has also been active in Red Cross sponsored projects. Every year she has solicited the Faculty contributions.

Miss VanNoorden has also been a very ardent worker in the various teachers' organizations throughout the city.

The students of DeVilbiss will ever remember and appreciate Miss VanNoorden's years of service and we wish her much happiness and success in the years to come.

Glorious Past . . . Promising Future . . .

Because tradition and progress live together in Toledo, the 1950 graduating class of DeVilbiss High School has reason to look backward with pride and forward with eagerness and hope.

As American cities go, Toledo has a truly significant history. Dating as it does from pioneer times, the city is full of landmarks which revive old memories and remind the present generation of a glorious past.

But there are many modern signs, too, in this bustling Ohio community and we feel we can say, with pardonable pride, that the Owens-Illinois Glass Company is one of them.

Owens-Illinois is equally proud of the fact that Toledo citizens continue to take an active part, as well as a personal interest in this enterprise, which has helped make Toledo the Glass Center of the World.

Many alumni of DeVilbiss High School are included in our personnel and are doing much to help us solve our everyday problems.

It is given to only a few to use their life span to benefit all generations to come after them. Such was the gift of Thomas Alva Edison, pioneer in applying electricity to better the lot of mankind.

Only a holder of the original Edison license may use the name "Edison" as a part of its corporate title.
It is the mark of a pioneer. The Toledo Edison Co.,
a business-managed, tax-paying, self-supporting elec-
